A Season for Growing...

From tulips and buds and bright green grass...to new garden beds out behind the church...to new faces in Bible study and worship: it's clear that this is the season for growing!

Some growth happens all by itself; it's enough simply to watch it happen and enjoy it. Other growth happens because people get involved in making it happen. A vision is shared, people show up with hammers and saws and paint brushes, rich soil and healthy seeds or plants. Yet another kind of growth (inward, faith-filled) takes place when people commit themselves to talk about the scriptures together, to worship and pray together as the Body of Christ in this place.

In every instance of growing, God's hand is visible...to people of faith!

As a congregation, we're seeing God's hand at work in gathering new faces in worship; our joy is simply to welcome them. Some of these new people are interested in discovering what membership at All Saints is all about. Plans are being made to answer their questions and bring them on board.

We're also talking about new ways of reaching the community around the church this spring and summer, particularly young children and their families. This will take some serious work (even more than hammers and saws and paint brushes!), but through God's guidance and blessing and our labor, growth can happen here, too!

Early this month our Northwestern Ohio Synod will meet in assembly to elect a bishop and take care of matters that need our attention. This may seem more like 'maintenance' than 'growth,' but in truth, it's necessary work that sets the stage for all kinds of growth yet to come. As of now, we're still looking for a couple of All Saints members to join me in representing our church (May 13-15). Let me know if you'd be interested in attending one or more days.

On another note, May marks the start of my second year as your pastor! Hard to believe how quickly the time passes. Thanks again for your gracious, open-hearted reception of me, and for all the things you do to make this church the great ministry it is. I'm honored to serve you and look forward to seeing what kind of growth God has in store for us together!

Peace in Christ,

Pastor Rich

Thank you to Pastor and to all those who sent cards and well wishes to me after my hospitalization.

You're thoughts and prayers meant so much to me!

Thanks again,
Pat Toepfer

POUND
AUCTION

May 2nd
after worship

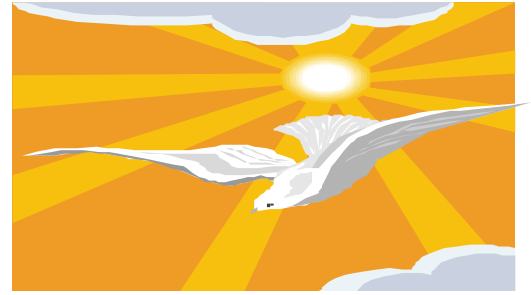

As part of the Cinco de Mayo celebration, we will once again have the pound auction. Proceeds will be donated to Lutheran Disaster Relief. It's loads of fun and here is how it works. We need people to donate items which could be things around the home or purchased items and they should be wrapped so no one knows what they are. If the gift is a gender or age-related, you may want to indicate that on the package (like suitable for a child, or suitable for a man, etc). The original idea of the "pound" auction was that wrapped items should weigh around a pound. However we no longer are concerned with the weight. Examples of previous gift items are: a jar of pickles, children's books, toilet paper, kitchen wares, toiletries, etc.

Before the Cinco de Mayo dinner, people may look at and handle the gifts to be auctioned and hopefully will be enticed to bid. There will be a bid sheet with every gift on which those who are interested can write their bid. Of course, it is our hope that someone else will outbid them. During the party, the gifts will be auctioned off. It's fun and profitable for the charity. Please come and see for yourself, and enjoy the meal and party. All your efforts are truly appreciated, so please be generous, have fun, and help out this very worthy cause. Please bring the pound auction items beginning the week before the party and even on the day of the party. Any questions?

TITLE: Acceptance & Courage

SPEAKER: Rita Hoff

Director Outreach Ministries St. Patrick
Heatherdowns Parish and Bereavement
Team

During our grief journey we may ask ourselves, how can I accept the things I cannot change and have the courage to change the things I can? The Serenity Prayer ends with, "and the wisdom to know the difference."

Our mission is to offer support to people who are grieving the death of a loved one. With caring support, we provide spiritual, emotional, and social comfort.

Lady Saint's Minutes

On Saturday, April 10th there were eleven ladies present. Kathy Yarger, once again, had the tables beautifully decorated. The food was delicious as usual and everyone enjoyed it.

For devotions, Bev Rose read three short stories that she said came from opening the Bible at three various places without looking.

The amount of $35.00 was collected - Treasurer's Report.

Julie Beitelschees moved that $500.00 be given for dirt for our Community Garden plots. Motion was seconded by Ann Miller which was amended to $518.00.

It was decided that we will have the Tea Luncheon next year and it will be discussed more at a later date.

Our retreat was also discussed and perhaps the men would be part of it - this will be discussed further at our next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marilyn Gabriel
